

How to be an Inviting Church
Lesson One: "Practicing the Priority"

By
Michael Lewis
Dalton Gardens Church of Christ
April 22, 2007

Regularly being part of our church meetings has blessings:

1. You are more likely to _____ spiritually.
2. You have a greater sense of _____.
3. You have stronger _____.
4. You have a stronger sense of spiritual _____.

But the effectiveness of a church is ultimately measured by how each member _____ during the course of each week. - Matt 5:13-16

Our number one priority at Dalton Gardens is to be "A Place to Belong to _____."

"A Place to Belong to a loving and accepting family..."

"A Place to Belong to an uplifting worship experience..."

"A Place to Belong to a group of searchers who thirst to know more..."

"A Place to Belong to a lifestyle of service and bringing hope to others..."

How can we be an inviting church?

1. Being an inviting church means we are _____ in sharing the good news (Inward graciousness). Matthew 22:1-3
2. Being an inviting church means we are _____ what will help us to connect with outsiders (Outward sensitivity). 1 Cor. 9:19-23
3. Being an inviting church means we are relentless in _____ to others (Opportunity stewardship). Col 4:5