James 5:1-6

Here is one of the great principles of God:

We are to _____ people and _____ things.

Look at the terrible consequences of the materialistic life:

1. You _____ up wealth (v. 3b).
2. You _____ people (v. 4).
3. You are _____ (v. 5).
4. You will _____ people (v. 6).

Three Lessons:

1. Let us evaluate ourselves by _____ we are, not by _____ we have.

Matthew 6:19; Luke 12:15

Hear this: _____ is more important than possessions.

2. Be _____ with what you have, not with what you _____.

Philippians 4:12

Hear this: You can't really be _____ for what you have until you believe you have _____.

3. Use the things God gives you to _____ Him and _____ in the cause of Christ.

Remember this: In a tight-grip _____ world there is no greater proof of faith than our open-handed _____.

Ephesians 3:20-21
