

A CHURCH ON THE MOVE

*Lesson Two: Good Leaders
Meaning Leaders we want to Follow*

Selecting Congregational Leaders...

The scriptures are specific about some of the qualities of elders but many things about how the selection is made is up to the discretion of each congregation.

Here are the highlights of our process...

1. Every man, not currently serving as an elder, who receives 25 nominations from different members of the congregation will be _____ to enter into the selection process.
2. Every man invited to serve will need to decide for _____ if he is qualified to serve, have the time and the desire to be an elder for this congregation.
3. And then the _____ will decide if each man who is willing to serve should serve.
4. There is a group known as _____ who has been appointed to independently oversee the selection process.
5. The selection process allows the congregation to make most of the _____ about the kind of elders we will have here.

1 Peter 5:1-4...Three names for a congregational leader.

1. "Presbuteros" which is translated presbyter or _____.
2. "Episcopos" which is translated bishop or _____.
3. "Poimen" which is translated pastor or _____.

The decision we make will go a long way to deciding the church we will be in the coming years. Be prayerful and be wise.
