

HOW GOD BUILDS A LEADER WORTH FOLLOWING

“They Know How to Tell the Truth”

Michael L. Lewis
Dalton Gardens Church of Christ
January 18, 2009

1 Samuel 15:2,3 and 13-26; Deut. 25:17, 18; 1 Corinthians 5:9-11; Romans 12:5; Eph 4:25

FIRST PRINCIPLE: We are not called to be _____ people, especially toward outsiders, but we do have a sacred trust to be lovingly _____ to one another for how our lives reflect the clear commands of God’s Word.

A. Jesus Christ tells us we _____ each other.

B. We cannot help each other if we don’t have a _____ with each other.

SECOND PRINCIPLE: Mature Christians know they have a _____ to keep the congregation healthy by _____ for the members of their spiritual family in need.

What usually happens...

1. We pretend like everything is _____.
2. We make _____ for the person.
3. We leave it to someone more _____.
4. We just _____.

What should happen....

1. Remember, confrontation is not about _____.
2. You need to _____ yourself before God and ask for _____ before you help others.

Galatians 6:1

3. You need to select an _____ that reflects the importance of what you need to say.
4. Realize that with Christian truth telling comes the responsibility for what _____ _____.