Big BBQ Fellowship... Stay for the big BBQ Fellowship immediately following our worship gathering today.

Mike Swaim began teaching the Adult Bible Class Today... The topic is: "Feeling Secure in a Troubled World."

Remember the Memorial Weekend Family Camp coming May 27-31... There is no registration fee. Bible discussions and devotionals are planned. Bring your own food (kitchen available). You can camp out with your own tent, use the bunk beds available inside, trailer sites are also available. It will be a great opportunity to explore our new Bible camp site.

Benny Baker will be here, next Sunday, May 22, to talk about the church in Nicaragua... Our shepherds today are distributing their mission/outreach plan for the 2022-23 fiscal year. The goal is lofty but their faith in our capacity to reach it is strong. This year's Mission/Outreach Offering is June 5th.

Thanks to all who help with getting started on our new front yard... A special thanks to Jim Klein and Georgette Rude for their hard work and all who volunteered yesterday.

Remember the Wednesday night devo and Bible study... 6pm classes for children, teens, and adults. Then there Michael's Thursday morning class, and LIFEGroups. Be involved in something that helps you grow roots in His Word.

And remember the Tuesday Night 4th Street/Dalton Gardens Bible study... This group meets in the Youth Barn.

If you are a guest with us today please complete a Communication Card... We have a gift to mail you.

Adi Valicu is the minister for a Church of Christ in Craiova, Ukraine. He is a native Ukrainian, trained at the Sunset Bible Institute in Texas. He and his family are safe in Romania today. But every Wednesday, he puts on his bright blue and yellow sweatshirt (colors of Ukraine's flag), under his flak jacket, and returns to Craiova to minister, pray, and hold worship times for a small group of Ukrainian members of his congregation who remain. He then returns to Romania late Sunday night to repeats it all the next week. Pray for him.
